Kongde is a peak that is about four kilometers (aerial distance) away and 1000 meters above Namche Bazaar. Namche is the staging point for expedition to Everest, and it is the place where world renowned Sherpa climbers come from.

From Kongde one can view Everest and the entire Khumbu valley. Other tall mountains namely Cho-Oyu, Amadablam, Cholatse, Island peak and many more are seen seemingly at a stone's throw.
